How We Assist...

PUBLIC COMPANIES

A comfortable balance between big and small.

Local, national and international public companies throughout our region have been turning to The Bonadio Group for more than three decades. There's a reason we are one of the nation's largest accounting, business advisory, and financial services groups. Bonadio has earned a reputation as an ideal choice for public companies seeking independent accounting advice and services. We offer a unique balance of scale, resources, capabilities and reasonable costs.

Here, you'll find a dedicated team who understands the unique challenges facing public companies—a team well versed in a broad range of support for your business, such as:

- Attest services
- Independent tax provision services
- Management and accounting consulting
- Tax compliance
- Internal audit
- Due diligence
- SOX 404 compliance
- Valuation services

Put your financial statement audit in the right hands

As independent auditors, the professionals at Bonadio work to provide you with reasonable assurance on the quality of your financial statement. Working with your management and audit committee, we independently examine your financial statements, strictly adhering to U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP).

We provide tax strategies for public companies

The Bonadio Tax Practice includes multi-state and international experts, and we can bring the resources of our national and international Moore Stephens affiliation to engagements, where appropriate. In addition to our SEC expertise, we are authorities in cost segregation studies, R&D tax credits, the Section 199 Manufacturing Deduction, international taxation of businesses, executives and foreign-based employees, and local economic development programs offering tax credits and other incentives.

Big firm capability. Small firm personality.
